SCHOOL MANAGEMENT PLATFORM

PARTNERSHIP PROPOSAL

 Built for Nigerian schools

 Every feature included, on every plan

 Billed per academic term

 Native mobile app for staff

THE PROBLEM

Running a school still means juggling a dozen disconnected tools

Most schools patch together spreadsheets, WhatsApp groups, paper registers, and manual bank reconciliation — and every gap between those tools costs time, money, and trust with parents.

Paper-based records

Admission files, attendance registers, and report cards live in cabinets — slow to retrieve, easy to lose, impossible to analyze.

Manual fee collection

Tracking who has paid, chasing defaulters, and reconciling bank transfers by hand eats into staff time every single term.

Disconnected communication

Parents find out about school closures, fee deadlines, or their child's performance late — or not at all.

Slow, error-prone admissions

Walk-in applications, handwritten forms, and no way for parents to track application status remotely.

Built specifically for how Nigerian schools operate

1

One platform, not ten subscriptions

Admissions, fees, payroll, and communication tools are usually bought separately and never talk to each other. EduCore replaces all of them with one login, one source of truth, and no double data entry.

2

Every feature, on every plan

There are no locked-away premium features. A small school and a large one use the exact same platform — only the price scales with enrollment.

3

Your own branded school portal

Every school gets its own subdomain, branded admissions page, and careers page — parents and job applicants interact with your school's identity, not a generic third-party tool.

4

Nigerian payroll & compliance, built in

PAYE tax bands, pension deductions, and WAEC/NECO/JAMB candidate registration are native features — not workarounds bolted onto a foreign system.

5

Parents stay informed automatically

Fee reminders, result publication, admission updates, and disciplinary notices reach parents by email and SMS without any manual follow-up from your staff.

6

Grows with your school

Whether you run one campus or several, EduCore scales from a single classroom block to a multi-campus group without switching systems.

7

A real mobile app — not just a mobile website

Teachers install the EduCore app and get their own personalized schedule the moment they log in: their timetable, their lesson periods for the day, and their exam supervision duty assignments — plus QR-code staff attendance clock-in, all from their phone, with no separate device or hardware required.
